IMMIGRANTS RECEIVED
LEGAL & SOCIAL SERVICES

Ayuda provides legal, social, and language access services to low-income immigrants from anywhere in the world.

In 2025, low-income immigrants across D.C., M.D., and V.A. faced new and overwhelming challenges amid Trump 2.0. As their trusted support system, Ayuda's programs – woven together with the support of partners, donors, and volunteers – delivered critical services and lasting impact.

"If I could tell everyone in America one thing about my clients, it is that they are so smart and so determined to make their lives and this country a better place. These kids are going from living on the streets, from fearing for their lives to being honor roll students in just a matter of a few years. And the only thing holding them back from reaching their dreams is a slip of paper that says 'you can stay in this country.'"
